NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT, SALE, OR TRANSFER OF SERVICING RIGHTS

You are hereby notified that the servicing of your mortgage account, that is, the right to collect payments from you, is being assigned, sold or transferred from Mr Cooper to Select Portfolio Servicing, Inc., effective 10/01/2019. The assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing of the mortgage account does not affect any term or condition of the mortgage instrument, other than the terms directly related to the servicing of your mortgage account.

Except in limited circumstances, the law requires that your present servicer send you a notice at least 15 days before the effective date of transfer or at closing. Your new servicer must also send you a notice no later than 15 days after the effective date or at closing.

You should also be aware of the following information, pursuant to Section 6 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. § 2605):

During the 60-day period following the effective date of the transfer of the mortgage account servicing, an account payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new mortgage account servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. 2605) gives you certain consumer rights. If you send a "Notice of Error" or "Request for Information" to your servicer concerning the servicing of your account (at the exclusive address they have designated for receiving such requests), your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 5 business days of receipt of your request. A Notice of Error/Request for Information is a written notice, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment form supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number and the error you believe has occurred or the information you are requesting. Not more than 30 business days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, and must provide you with a written response. A 15 day extension is permitted if the servicer notifies you before the end of the 30 day period and provides the reasons for the delay in responding. After receipt of a Notice of Error, a servicer may not, for 60 days, furnish adverse information to any consumer reporting agency regarding any payment that is the subject of the Notice of Error. However, this does not prevent the servicer from initiating foreclosure or proceeding with a foreclosure sale if proper grounds exist under the mortgage documents.

A business day is a day on which the offices of the business entity are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that section. You should seek legal advice if you believe your rights have been violated.

This statement does not represent and is not intended to be a demand for payment. This notice is for informational purposes only. If you have filed bankruptcy or have been discharged in bankruptcy, please be advised that you should contact legal counsel with any questions regarding the mortgage account.
